City of Fulton to Hold Special City Council Meeting

A Possible Face Covering Ordinance Will Be Discussed

The Fulton City Council will be holding a special meeting on Tuesday, July 21 to discuss a possible face covering ordinance. It will begin at 6 p.m. at City Hall. The first hour of the meeting will be dedicated to public comments, either in favor or opposed to a face covering ordinance. During the comment period, speakers on a first come, first served basis will rotate based on their position regarding a proposed ordinance. In order to speak, City of Fulton residents and business owners must register at City Hall beginning at noon on Monday, July 20. Following the comment session, the council will begin discussion on a face covering ordinance. Anyone with questions regarding the meeting can contact the City Clerk's office at 592-3111.

Reporters seeking to schedule an interview regarding this story can contact Public Information Officer Darin Wernig at 573-592-3115 or publicinfo@fultonmo.org.
