NOTICE: the proposed amendment revises Article I, section 23 of the Missouri Constitution by adopting additional language to Article I, section 23 of the Missouri Constitution.

Be it resolved by the people of the state of Missouri that the Constitution be amended:

Article I, section 23 of the Missouri Constitution is revised to add the following underlined language:

Section 23(a). That the right of every citizen to keep and bear arms, ammunition, and accessories typical to the normal function of such arms, in defense of his home, person, family and property, or when lawfully summoned in aid of the civil power, shall not be questioned. The rights guaranteed by this section shall be unalienable. Any restriction on these rights shall be subject to strict scrutiny and the state of Missouri shall be obligated to uphold these rights and shall under no circumstances decline to protect against their infringement. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the general assembly from enacting general laws which limit the rights of convicted violent felons or those adjudicated by a court to be a danger to self or others as result of a mental disorder or mental infirmity.

Section 23(b). No municipal, county or subdivision of the state of Missouri may pass any rule, regulation, ordinance, law or any other legal authority that regulates the right of any citizen to keep and bear arms, ammunition, and accessories typical to the normal function of such arms.

Section 23(c). No person under the age of 18 shall possess any firearm within the state of Missouri, unless such possession of a firearm is possessed (i) under emergency circumstances, (ii) by a member of the United States Armed Forces, (iii) with the permission of a parent, guardian or person entrusted to care for such person under the age of 18, or (iv) under the direct supervision of a person over the age of 25 who has been granted written permission by the parent or guardian of such person possessing a firearm under the age of 18.
